partner, just as vigorously thrashes the air with her left arm raised about six inches from her partners right arm, where it should be resting lightly and quietly In addition to the innovation the young men must bring football taction into the drawing room and ball-room and become "rushers" and terrors to the more gentlemanly and quiet dancers. This rushing movement is obtained by holding the girl olosely and rushing her backward through the crowd at breakness pace: regardless of torn dresses, bruises, &c. Like all good things, the two step: is being abused. It should be borno in mind that poor dancing is not the fault of the darce, but of the dancer, as the dancer makes the dance by his manner of execution. This dance, being so easy, to pick up by novices and poor dancers, is proving dangerous to our most beautiful dance of all, the waltz. To be sure, we see as many, it not more, waltzes on programmes, but we do not see so many dance ing the true three step waltz. The two stap, like an octopus, grabs all within reach. Formerly this step, when danced to a wultz, was called the daux temps (two time), or more properly the igocramus waitz; it being attempted by many without previous practice.

So it is to-day. Poor waltzers and those who are self-taught attempt the two stop to waltz music. Then, as bad examples are easily followed. our accomplished dancers are very often forced to dance the two step to waitz time by reason of having a partner with more assurance in the knowledge of the art, and honce we see the wallz degenerating.
